Commodore's Ball 2006

Commodore Bradley and his wife Sandra organized a lovely and fun event to kick off the summer season, Saturday, June 15th. The rains abated for the event, the food was delicious, fellowship abounded. Past Commodore Mike Gahan emceed for the evening with his usual wit, and Tim

McHale and the "Knuckleheads" got everyone up and onto the dance floor. CPYC past commodores, CPYC Flag Officers, Commodores from other yacht clubs sang the ever popular "We Love Our Commodore" ► led by Frank Manning, Past Commodore of the South Boston Yacht Club, and of the Commodores Club of America.

Commodore Bradley presented immediate Past Commodore Jack Condon with his past commodore's flag ▼ and presented the secretary's flag to past secretary David Hubbard.

Rev. Corbet Walsh gave his usual humorous and poignant invocation prior to dinner.

◀ Past Commodore Condon presented Janet and John Nalen with the Commodore's Award for last year. ▼ Roger Sirois was presented the Vice Commodore's Award from Commodore Bradley. ▼ The Rear Commodore's award recipient, Ralph Bagley was unable to attend. Congratulatlions to all.

Tim McHale got the ball goers onto the dance floor and persuaded them to participate actively in the evenings festivities. ►

Memorial Day Celebrations Held at CPYC

Veterans of Naval Service were honored at CPYC on Sunday of Memorial Day Weekend in a ceremony which honored their contributions to their country. This memorial service rotates annually between the town's yacht clubs. Vice Commodore Lou Todisco welcomed the veterans, following an honor guard salute. A traditional flowered wreath was tossed into the water in memory of departed veterans.

CPYC 1st Annual Summertime Fishing Tournament

The Windjammer is admittedly a little late in announcing this, but the summer still has many weeks ahead to catch the fish of your dreams from the CPYC docks. The event runs through Labor Day, Sept 4th. Make your $10.00 entry fee payment to Bob Sheppard or Chris Berg. The rules include fishing from the docks only; stripers and Blues only; must have a photo of the fish and one witness ( camera behind the bar in pilot house if needed); measured by size. Winner take all. Cook out/ banquet TBD.

THE JUNE FISH STORY

Paul Nichol's caught this 36 inch striped bass off the marina floats. The proof is in the official measurement show to the left. Note the witnesses present! There have been other big striped bass caught but it looks as if Paul is currently leading in the Summer Fishing Tournament.

Bye Bye Boilers

Now that we do not need heat any longer, the old boilers were removed the end of June to continue the transition to gas. Resident expert Paul Leary led his volunteer crew of Lou Todisco, Larry Floyd, Larry Bradley, Frank Schwartz (absent from picture) and Ernie Hardy (taking the picture) in removing the old boilers and cleaning the room. It was hot, hard, dirty work. The old boilers were in bad shape, making the decision to transition, a good one. Dave O'Brien, Jr. did the preparatory electrical work.

Is There a New Hotel on Yirrell Beach at Point Shirley?

The Answer is No. It was the "Freedom of the Seas" as she was leaving Boston Harbor.

What would we do without resident photographer Tom McHugh to capture scenes like this from Cottage Park Yacht Club and to share them with the Windjammer for the whole membership to appreciate.

STAR CLASS NEWS

The weather got the better of the first half of our Star Fleet racing season, but we still have a few races to go and anything can happen. Teenage sensation Tomas Hornos and his dad Luis are currently in the lead, with reigning Fleet Champs Ken Woods and Howard Davis right on their heels. Tomas, representing CPYC, just finished 12th in the Laser Class at the 2006 US Youth Sailing Championship at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, Michigan.

The Star Class always enjoys coming back to CPYC; we're all looking forward to great racing, and even better camaraderie. ## A Christening and Debut in the Fleet

Under a bright summer sky the latest boat building project of the Honan Family, The William & Anthony, was christened with much fanfare on Father's Day. Family and friends gathered at Yerrill Beach for an afternoon celebration highlighted with Rev. Charles Bourke of Saint John the Evangelist Church blessing the recently built boat while an Irish Piper played the pipes in the background.

Former Commodore, Mike Gahan presented Richard Honan and his family with a miniature version of the C.P.Y.C. burgee.

The new boat made it's debut at the Cottage Park Yacht Club on Saturday July 1 at the Blessing of the Fleet. Highlights of the christening were video taped by Ron Wayland and shown on Winthrop's own television station WCAT-TV.

Youth Sailing Kicks Off Summer Program With Fashion Show

Youth Sailing began its summer program with a fashion show, coordinated by Paula Ronan, with the assistance of many, many youth sailing parents. It takes a lot of assistance to put on an event such as this. The young people and adults wore fashions from Tablot's Kids, TJ Maxx and the CPYC store. The show pictures below best describe the event.

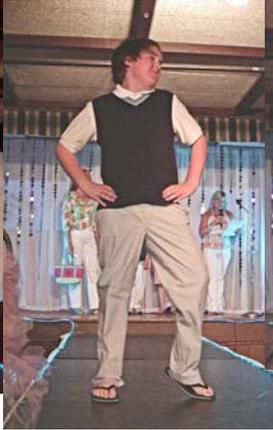

On Monday June 26th the program officially started with swim tests and an evening Barbeque. This year there are 62 youth in the program, with 30 beginners. The Head Instructor is Colleen Lally; Instructors are Gabrielle Vannoni, Matt Aiello and Phil Ronan; and Junior Instructors are Sam Roberts, Jessica Curley, and Matt Evans. Volunteer assistants for the program are Hatch Brown and Ernie Hardy.

New Entertainment Committee
Up and Running

The entertainment committee has been revitalized with Taryn Pittman and Nancy Corbet as co chairpersons of the committee. Both Taryn and Nancy are organized individuals who work in management positions and are excited about the forward direction of the entertainment committee. Drawing on the interests members expressed on the member survey, the committee now has a robust, talented and creative core group of twelve. More members have expressed interest and more are welcome to join, as many hands make light work. Nancy and Taryn are planning on having event captains. Soon you will be getting information and dates on specific activities. The committee is formulating their plans for the future. Right now they are working on revitalizing activities for the pilot house and deck so there will be Saturday night activities.

There will be Trivia Nights with Mike Gahan, a master of trivia, testing member memories in his unequaled humorous fashion.

By popular demand, Karaoke is slated to return.

The committee also wants to bring live music into the pilot house some nights but needs to generate funds to support this, There will be split the pots to do so.

There are also activities planned for the function hall including a $10,000 dinner,

A Martini Jazz night is in the works.

There has been interest in having a wine tasting party. The one held a few year ago was a lot of fun.

a Halloween Party,

an Adult Christmas party, the Children's Christmas Party

and a New Year's Eve Party

The committee is also looking at new and better ways of letting the membership know about upcoming activities. The committee meets again on July 12th and welcomes other ideas and new members. CPYC is going to be a more fun, busier place of good fellowship.

Matt Twomey, In the Service of the Military Sealift Command

Recently Stephen Buckley received and forwarded to me as Windjammer editor, an email from member Matt Twomey in response to one of Stephen's event reminders. Matt emailed that he was sorry that he would be unable to attend the Commodore's Ball as he was usually 400 miles off the coast of Cape Henry, VA., and sent pictures of his activities. As a result I have been in communication with Matt for this Windjammer article.

Matt has been a member of CPYC since 2000 and participated in the 2000 Tall Ships Boston Class C with the exhibition vessel "Bosun Bird" a 1934, 16

He writes, "I am really having a blast out here, and suspect that I am 6 months into a potentially very satisfying career as a merchant mariner. I do miss my kids, but my wife is self sufficient for now, so I am enjoying this whole experience. The goal is to operate these vessels safely and efficiently, and to help the younger people to learn how to work and protect themselves from all sorts of problems: Fatigue, exposure, social problems, and career planning.

Most of the civilian sailors are no better off educationally than the sailors of 100 years ago, so it can be a strange mix. But if you like physical work, fast action, fulfilling the navy's operational requirements (that is the exciting part, on the water, as in the photos)

Flight Replenishment Underway of course...

and like working in a heavy industry environment, then it is a BLAST. I would have to say that the happiest jobs of my life have been in paper mills, and out here, because of the responsibility that you can accept when handling the machinery and the people. Anyway, I'm hoping to get to CPYC in Sept. then right back out. " Matt can be emailed at Matthew S. Twomey.civ@msc.navy.mil

According to the Military Sealift Command website,

"The mission of Military Sealift Command is to provide ocean transportation of equipment, fuel, supplies and ammunition to sustain U.S. forces worldwide during peacetime and in war for as long as operational requirements dictate. During a war, more than 95 percent of all equipment and supplies needed to sustain the U.S. Military are carried by sea. MSC provides the sea transportation component for the United States Providing fuel, food, ammunition, spare parts and other supplies, Naval Fleet Auxiliary Force, or NFAF, ships enable the Navy fleet to operate at the highest operational tempo possible. NFAF ships provide underway replenishment services to U.S. Navy ships worldwide alleviating the need for them to constantly return to port for supplies. "

The program is composed of ocean tugs, fast combat support ships, fleet replenishment oilers, combat stores ships, ammunition ships, rescue—salvage ships, dry cargo/ammunition ships and hospital ships.

Solo Transatlantic Voyage to Port Camargue, France

On Friday June 16th at 11:28 EDT, Alex MeVay departed Cottage Park Yacht Club for a solo voyage across the Atlantic to Port Camargue on the Mediterranean coast of France in his Mini, Genasun. Alex hopes to reach the French port in 35 days after covering approximately 3,600 nautical miles. Once in Europe he be one of only a few Americans competing in European Mini races this summer. His goal is to qualify for next years Mimi Transat.

Alex has been an avid sailor growing up on Long Island Sound. After graduating from MIT in 2002 with a Master Degree on Math and Electrical Engineering, he founded his company Genasun which makes advanced energy products for sailboats and alternative energy solutions.

After purchasing his Mini, a Pogo 1, Alex spent 8 months sailing it in the Caribbean and up the Atlantic Coast to Boston. A Mini is the smallest class of offshore racing sail boat with an LOA of 21 ft, Beam 9.8 ft, a 36.1 ft mast, draft of 7 ft, and can carry 1000 square feet of sail area.

Genasun is outfitted with Alex's company's solar panels and energy systems on the crossing.

Alex's planned route as seen on the left, takes him past the Islands of the Azores, through the Straits of Gibraltar into the Mediterranean Ocean, up the east coast of Spain to France.

As Alex readied to leave CPYC on June 16th, a contingency of members came to wish him a safe voyage. ◀ Vice Commodore Lou Todisco presented Alex with a club burgee for the voyage. Mr. and Mrs. MeVay were also on hand for the departure. ▶ Alex's mother described the weeks of preparation and the quantity of food and water that is stored in Genasun for the voyage. When asked if she was concerned about Alex on the trip she said he was experienced and a good sailor. She shared that Alex had asked her not to call, that he would stay in touch. Interested members can follow Alex's adventure on his website, <http://www.genasun.com> Alex has been posting his position along with periodic messages and antidotes such as how to take a shower on Genasun and sighting the island of Corvo in the Azores.

On July 2nd, Alex's day 16 position put him 2,086 miles from Winthrop, over half way to his destination and seemingly on his time schedule of 35 days. The route traveled so far is pictured below.

CPYC Participates in Newport to Bermuda Race

CPYC was well represented in the Centennial Newport to Bermuda Race held in June. Eric Larsen was aboard Family Affair, a Tartan 41 that finished 12th of 22 ORC contestants in Class 1 of the St. David's Lighthouse Division. Steven Crombie, Jr. raced on Kinship, a Baltic 52 that finished 13th of 21 ORC in Class 6 of the St. David's Division. His father, Steven helped transport the vessel back from Bermuda to Newport.

CPYC Racing Notes

The excessive rain in the past 2 months has definitely effected competitor turn out at the JFK regatta and the Constitution Cup. Boats were not able to be readied for the season until late. To the left is one of the 5 boats that came out for the JFK Regatta, which was held on a miserable weather day. It is interesting to note that the turn out in Marblehead has been down too. The day after the JFK Regatta , they had a similar turn out for their racing.

The Constitution Cup had a better turn out and beautiful weather finally, with several PHRF entrants, 7 J105's, and a number of Star's.

Reminder to All
Please keep the doors and gates to CPYC locked. This is for the safety of our members, children and staff.

Of Winthrop

Congratulations to Dave Hubbard on fulfilling his 12 year quest to compile a map history of Winthrop. Through his research, he located 225 maps of which 194 proved to be significant. This was a volunteer effort sponsored by the Winthrop Improvement and Historical Association with a partial grant from the Local Culture Council. Any proceeds from the sale of the book will go to the WHIA. To purchase a book for $20.00, contact Dave.

Book Club News

The Book Club met June 27th for a spirited discussion on their June selection, Fall on Your Knees by Ann Marie McDonald. The group found a lot of symbolism through out the book and agreed that it covered a great number of dysfunctions that can occur within a family; but had difficulty in believing them all that did occur with in just one family setting. In addition the book touched on many societal inequalities. That being said the book was written with wonderful imagery and highlighted interesting historical events.

The book club has decided to take the summer off to pursue independent reading and summer activities. However they will resume the end of September with the classic and one of the best selling novels of all times, Rebecca by Daphne Du Maurier. This is a book well worth reading for the first time or revisiting a second time. The Sept date will be announced.

Congratulations to the Child's on receiving such a great review. Katy has been a tremendous help to the Capital Improvements committee as they develop the plans for the Pilot House Kitchen.
