The Judy Gaffney Ducky Regatta

Ducks Away

Two ducks charged into the lead

Labor Day dawned with pouring rain and little wind. As the start of the Ducky Regatta approached the rain ceased and the wind became just strong enough to overpower the outgoing tide. When testing the wind and tides, a sea gull attacked two ducks thinking it they might have found a good meal. Duck Master and Duck PRO, Ernie Hardy and Dick Lawton, released approximately 400 ducks to drift toward the finish line.

The winning duck was Charlie Carey's duck, second was #264 (unclaimed as of this writing) and 3rd Charlie Whittaker, with purses of $500, $250, and $100 respectively. Lagging way behind was the lame duck of Joe Zambella which brought him $20 in scratch tickets. After the Cardboard boat race, (page 3) Janine Stanton, Holly Schlichting served meatball subs. Thanks to all for helping with regatta.

On safety patrol for the day, John Economidis caught the placing ducks.

The remaining ducks try unsuccessfully to catch up.

Another Great Summer for Adult Sailing Program

15 new and returning students participated in this summer's Adult Sailing Program. We were blessed with plenty of wind and a variety of CPYC sailboats that were lent to our cadre of volunteer CPYC instructors. Our fleet was comprised of Rhodes 19's, a Pearson Ensign, a Raven, a Whitehall skiff and a Cape Dory Senior. Students included not only CPYC members, but also members of Pleasant Park and Winthrop Yacht Clubs. Special thanks to Hatch Brown, Tim Howington, Rich and Steve Honan, Eric Kirton, Angela Hickey and Pamela and Josh Aranov for giving of their time and talent to instruct in our program. Our season concluded with Big Boat Night, when our novice sailors got a chance to sail on larger racing and cruising yachts. If you are interested in participating in the program next year, either as an instructor or as a student, email Pamela Aranov at aranov@rcn.com.

Commodore Winkler gathered old and new members together on August 13th to explain the structure of CPYC, to describe the various committees at CPYC and to seek additional volunteers for these committees.

Under the bylaws there are 3 types of committees:

Elected—the Nominating and Audit committees; Standing Committees — Finance, Capital Improvements, Entertainment, House Regatta Membership, and Marine Facilities; and Other Committees—Youth Sailing, Bowling, and Pool. Other non official committees include Adult Sailing, Make-A-Wish, and Windjammer.

Committee chair described the activities of the various committees as outlined in the by laws and their needs for additional volunteers. Anyone interested in joining a particular committee should contact the committee chair as posted on the membership board in the entryway, or an officer or member of the BOD.

CARDBOARD BOAT REGATTA

What can you do with a cardboard box? Why not make it into a cardboard boat for a regatta! The brain child of Barry Lawton, the 2nd annual cardboard boat regatta was held on Labor Day. This year there were two divisions, youth and adult. Much time, effort and planning went into the boat designs. Some boats succeeded, other failed. Some rules were observed, other ignored. The results ? Well enjoy the pictures that follow.

19th CPYC Regatta to Benefit Make-A-Wish

The 19th Annual CPYC regatta to benefit Make-A-Wish was held August 3 and 4th. Chairman Jeanie Stanton reports that between the raffles, donations, Tee shirt sales, racing entries, auction items and dinners, we raised approximately $20,000 for Make-A Wish. Thanks go to all of Janine's committee for their hard work on land and water. Thanks also go to all who attended making the event successful. There were 54 youth boats, 94 youth sailors, 9 one design boats, and 22 PHRF boats participating in this year's event. Results follow.

Solo To Hawaii

On July 6th, Sean McGinn, CPYC member left Marina del Rey California in his 21 foot mini "Daisy Cutter" bound for Diamond Head, Hawaii, 2200 miles away, in the first Mini 650 Pacific Challenge. Seven boats registered for the race. A couple of boats did not fulfill the prerequisite 400 mile qualifier.

Preparation for such a race is essential, electronics, satellite phones, extra boat parts, the right quantity and type of food, mental and physical toughness. It becomes a race to the race. Three boats made it to the start. One had nerves take over never starting the race. The favorite Jerome Samarcelli of France developed a medical emergency about 24 hours into the race and had to withdraw. Only Sean remained sailing the full distance to Diamond Head in 17 days, 1 hour 20 minutes and 58 seconds where he was met by his father, John McGinn. (Below)

▲ The start. ▼ Approaching the finish.

The race was set up so people interested in Sean's progress could follow him on a tracking website. This website is still active for anyone interested in following the track, hearing, Sean's satellite phone reports, or reading accompanying commentary. The site is www.mini650pacificchallenge.com

All was not smooth sailing for Sean's passage. He had problems with his electronics, periods of too much or too little wind, traffic in the shipping lanes, and a broken hal-yard. He woke up to a squid on the deck a few times. The variety of his food supply dwindled to lasagna and meatballs even for breakfast. In a solo journey like this fatigue is constant and must be managed.

There were ups too. He got to talk with other vessels at times including the ship that will eventually bring "Daisy Cutter" back to California.

(Editor's Note: Sean sailed and raced with us for several years and I got to know his mental and physical strength, and seamanship first hand. I followed his progress constantly checking the website multiple times a day, even had a bit of withdrawal when he arrived safely. Knowing his voice I was able to tell when things were good, were concerning him and when he was tired. He kept his sense of humor in his broadcasts. )

Youth Sailing News

Youth Sailing opened its successful season with a family barbeque. Unfortunately the weather did not cooperate and the event had to be moved into the hall.

Some braved the soggy weather

VC Tom Schlichting cooked in the rain.

The weather dampened neither the amount and variety of food, nor the appetites of attendees.

This year CPYC Youth Sailing had a record 80 children in the program of which 40 of these student were beginners. The program took racing very seriously this year holding four Tuesday Twilight Nights. For the first time Winthrop Yacht Club youth were invited to join the Twilights. We had four days in our Club Championship Hatch Brown Series and raced in regattas both at home, around Boston Harbor and on the Mystic Lakes.

The YS committee would like to commend our sailors and instructors for doing a great job in N10's, Lasers & 420's once again this year. This season CPYC has taken 1st and 2nd in every N-10 regatta our students participated in. Many of our older youth took advantage of night racing at MIT. Clearly this was a direct result of the quality of the instruction they were getting and the encouragement they received. We are all very proud. We concluded the season with four top ten finishers at the Midgets in Winchester.

Welcome to Our New Members.....

Karen Shattuck of Lunenburg is a self-employed realtor and looks forward to becoming involved in our sailing community at CPYC with her 30 foot sailboat named "Felicity". She has relatives at CPYC and has been here as a guest many times.

Steven Buonopane and his wife Kristen live in Winthrop and have 2 children, Christian and Gabrielle. Steven is an IT professional. The family looks forward to being involved at the Club, as their children share many activities with children of our members.

Long time Winthrop residents, Angelo Marcoccio and his wife Ellen have three children, Michelangelo, Julia, and Alessio. Two of the children have been involved in youth sailing. Grandson of the Twin Bakery owner, Angelo is a bakery sales consultant and Ellen a dental hygienist. They have come to many events as CPYC over the years.

Daniel and Nichole Seliquini moved to Winthrop from Virginia last spring. They have already become involved in club life as Dan is bowling and plans to take Adult Sailing next year.

Laser Frostbite sailor Devon Brown has sailed for the past three winter at CPYC. He, his wife Martha, and children Chloe, Lydia, and Henry live in Belmont. He is also a member of Medford Boat club and has a Boston Whaler.

Burgee Summer Travels

In July the burgee traveled to the Fokkesloot Canal in Eernewuude, Netherlands with Sue and Mark McDonough. They had a bungalow on a working canal.

Barges, work boats, sail boats, power boats large and small--you name it--were going back and forth on a steady basis until they shot the picture of course!!

Learn from an experience of another!

By Steven Greppi

I'd like to relate a story that happened to me recently. From the onset, I want to stress that in no way the CPYC Club was responsible or negligent in what happened to me that day. What happened was the result of my own stupidity. In other words, I screwed up...

On June 16th, Father's Day, after a good day of sailing with the family, we were about ready to go back ashore and head out to Boston to celebrate Father's day at a nice restaurant. We called Windjammer to pick us up at the mooring.

Now, I have repeated many times to my family or guests some simple rules about using the launch. One of them –and the most important– is that you never jump in the launch. You step into it using the handrail provided for that. But of course, that day and against my own recommendations, I decided to jump from the deck of my sailboat to the launch.

I landed with my left foot on the bench of the launch, and in the process, twisted my ankle. I then lost my balance and landed on the inside of my right foot on the floor of the launch, which resulted in badly twisting my knee.

The pain was unbearable, in fact I almost passed out on the way back to the dock. The folks in the launch and at the dock were very sorry for me and extremely helpful in getting me ice packs, and helping me back to my car. In particular, there was a very nice woman, Lynda Consolo, who is a sports trainer, (and one of our bartenders). She bandaged my knee. I want to thank her profusely. Clearly, we skipped the restaurant that evening...

The verdict from the orthopedic specialist, confirmed by the MRI, was pretty straight forward: a torn meniscus that required arthroscopic surgery. I was on crutches for two weeks before the surgery. I'm happy to report that 10 days now after the surgery, I can walk just fine, and am sailing again.

I hope this bad experience will serve as a lesson for others: never, ever jump into the launch. Trust me, I know what I am talking about...

On behalf of my family, I would like to extend my sincerest thanks for all the love and support you've given to us during the difficult time of Ernie's passing. The presence of the current and past Commodores at Ernie's wake was so touching and I just know Ern was smiling down on all of us. Being a past Commodore himself, he truly loved his time at the club and considered it his second home. His membership and now the memberships of our children, ensures that we will always feel his presence whenever we visit the hall, the Pilot House, the pier ... right down to the finger floats. It is a comfort to Matt, Lauren and me to know that the extended family we have in the CPYC will help carry us through these sad days into summer skies, calmer seas, and happier times. Thank you all again.

Book Club

The September 17th meeting will discuss The Burgess Boys by Elizabeth Strout. Two very different brothers leave rural Maine until a family crisis brings them home.

The October 22nd book is The Columbus Affair by Steve Berry. A novel, the book proposes that Columbus and crew ventured to the new world to escape the Spanish Inquisition.

In November the club will discuss Light Between Oceans by M.L. Stedman. Returning to Australia from war, Tom takes a position on an isolated lighthouse with his young wife. Isolation, miscarriages and a boat washing up with a dead man and live baby brings the couple to make hard and devastating choices.
